

Group Evaluation Worksheet
Fall 2021 version

Each group member will complete the following evaluation. The group members will evaluate his/her performance within the group for the lab section. Then group members will evaluate the other group member's performance with the group for the lab section.

Please identify the class and lab section for this evaluation. _____

Name: _____

The self-evaluation score is _____

Please use the following scale for your self-evaluation.

1. One point would be nearly nothing.
2. Two points would be minimal effort.
3. Three points would be group average effort.
4. Four points would be slightly above group expect effort.
5. Five points would be beyond group expect effort.

Group member's name _____

The group member evaluation score is _____

Please use the following scale for your evaluation of a group member.

1. One point would be nearly nothing.
2. Two points would be minimal effort.
3. Three points would be group average effort.
4. Four points would be slightly above group expect effort.
5. Five points would be beyond group expect effort.

Group member's name _____

The group member evaluation score is _____

Please use the following scale for your evaluation of a group member.

1. One point would be nearly nothing.
2. Two points would be minimal effort.
3. Three points would be group average effort.
4. Four points would be slightly above group expect effort.
5. Five points would be beyond group expect effort.

List the date/time/method of each group meeting.